Tyler Junior College

Tyler, Texas

1976 marks the 200th birthday for the nation and the 50th birthday for Tyler Junior College. Since the college opened in September, 1926, it has progressed from an addition to the public school system to a community-minded junior college recognized for its academic excellence, transferability of courses and minimal tuition.

Season With 6-5 Record

The Apaches started the football campaign with two impressive victories and a lofty No. 2 ranking in the national junior college poll.

Then Blinn brought the Apaches back down to earth as they suffered their first loss.

Next came a win, loss, two wins, two losses, win and finally a, 20-14, setback from the Kilgore Rangers in the conference championship game.

Sophomore halfback Bobby Mitchell and sophomore center Malcolm Bussey were again named to the Texas Junior College Football Federation's all-conference team for the second year.

Sophomore noseguard Ernest Shields, tackle David Wells and defensive end Eldridge Beverly made it for the first time. Beverly was the only Apache freshman to the elite team.

Veterans Push Apaches To Early Lead

The '76 Apaches jumped out to a quick 7-2 season record under the tutelage of head coach Randall Milstead. Coach Milstead is in his first full year at the helm of the Apaches after taking over for Floyd Wagstaff during the '75 season. Milstead guided the Apaches to a 12-6 record.

The Apaches have been impressive in the early going. The win column included a three game sweep in the San Jacinto Classic. In the tourney, the Apaches claimed a stirring victory with an 83-76 decision over the highly regarded San Jacinto Ravens.
